Choose your course selections from the catalog. If a class lasts for 2 periods or more, you must sign up for the entire session. Classes will be filled on a first come first served basis. Class sizes require a minimum of 5 people and a maximum of 15, unless otherwise specified, if there is only one Scout registered for a class, due to BSA youth protection guidelines, the scout may be moved to another class. Registrations for instructors of classes are not required to pay the registration fee but will need to pay the $11.00 for food if wanting to eat the catered meal, this includes if an instruction chooses to take a class as well.

Special note to Scouts: For Scouts taking a merit badge class you are required to bring the current merit badge worksheet (pamphlet is recommended), approved Blue/White merit card from Scoutmaster and complete any prerequisites if you want to receive full credit for merit badge completion, otherwise you will receive partial completion. It is the Scouts responsibility to keep up with their Blue/White card. If a Scout receives a partial Blue/White card, the Scout must make sure they understand requirements need to be completed and must follow up with the counselor or another approved counselor to finish up requirements that need to be completed in order to be awarded the merit badge.
